Secure BIS Certification for Your Electronic Products – Fast, Reliable, Compliant: Get BIS Certification for Electronic Products in India – Fast, Reliable, and Fully Compliant with PSR Compliance

In today's highly regulated electronics market, obtaining BIS certification is no longer optional — it is a mandatory requirement for manufacturers and importers looking to sell their electronic products in India. The Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) ensures that all electronics sold in the Indian market meet safety, performance, and quality standards under the Compulsory Registration Scheme (CRS).

If you are involved in the production, import, or distribution of electronic products like mobile phones, laptops, power banks, LED lights, chargers, or smart devices, your business must comply with BIS regulations. Failure to obtain proper certification can lead to product seizures, fines, and reputational damage.

At PSR Compliance, we provide complete support for BIS certification for electronic products in India. Our expert team helps you navigate the entire certification journey — from product categorization and documentation to lab testing and final registration with BIS. We make the
