Hand Tufted Carpets: We've discussed Loop and Cut and their hand-tufted carpets, and it's clear that they combine artistry and versatility to produce an opulent option for a space. Loop and Cut's hand-tufted carpets feature skilled artists who punch each yarn tuft through a fabric backing using a tool, resulting in a pile that is denser and heavier than that of a hand-knotted rug. The hand-tufted process is easier to manipulate for texture and design than a hand-knotted rug (and generally faster to produce), but retains the refined look of a handcrafted piece. Hand-tufted carpets are backed with latex for exceptional comfort, sound absorption, and feel with an unparalleled style for your interior design project.
